Misthinking globalisation: Implications for long-term investors
Professor, Graduate Institute, Geneva and University of Oxford
This talk will challenge the way you think about globalisation. Everyone knows globalisation is a process driven forwards by falling trade and communication costs – that is integrating national economies around the world. This view is incomplete.

This provocative keynote speech argues that globalisation should be viewed as two processes, not just one.

AUSCHWITZ-BIRKENAU STATE MUSEUM

Visit UNESCO World Heritage–listed Auschwitz-Birkenau, a former Nazi concentration camp where more than a million European Jews and other prisoners were confined or killed during the World War II. The death camp at Oświęcim, known as Konzetrationslager Auschwitz, was in fact a complex of camps, the largest Nazi death factory, where more than two million people, mostly Jews, perished. The Auschwitz camp consisted of several units, including the largest one at Brzezinka (Birkenau). Of the millions of people brought there in the period between 1940 and 1944, only 60 to 70 thousand utterly emaciated victims were alive at the time of liberation of the camp - at present, the National Museum of Oświęcim is situated on the site of the former camp.
